I agree that there are dangers related to motorcycle riding and I further agree that on tours and camps with RUBEN FARIA ADVENTURE TOURS there are certain additional dangers and risks, namely the following:

1. On the tours and camps there are sometimes chosen riding techniques and riding speeds similar to motorcycle riding under competition conditions. Risks or dangers can't be excluded, even with the highest diligence of RUBEN FARIA ADVENTURE TOURS and the tour guides. In particular can't be excluded the danger of a damage caused by another participant of the tour or camp. Following to the use of the motorcycle off road, sometimes even in heavy terrain, there is a high possibility of damage or increased wear.
2. The tours and the camps lead through rough or unsettled areas. The dangers in these areas consist in particular in deep canyons and obstacles like for example rocks, trees, holes and indentations, stone walls and ruins of walls and further varying or difficult soil, which can't be seen or occur, following to the speed, very quickly. Communication is difficult in some areas and in case of an accident, rescue and medical care could be available late.
3. The weather conditions can be extreme or change quickly and radically without warning.

I accept all these dangers and risks on the tours and camps with RUBEN FARIA ADVENTURE TOURS, in particular the risk of injury, demise, damage or loss of property.

I admit, that the pleasure and the excitement on tours like the ones offered by RUBEN FARIA ADVENTURE TOURS are partly related to the motorcycle riding on particular routes or in the sometimes difficult terrain. The dangers under these riding conditions are part of the fascination on tours and camps organized by RUBEN FARIA ADVENTURE TOURS. It's solely my task to estimate, if my riding skills are on a level high enough to master the route shown by the tour guides. The organizer or the tour guide isn't obligated to pinpoint and verify my riding skills and my abilities.

I take cognizance of the specific dangers and risks on the tours and I take part at the tour on my own risk.

Any liability of RUBEN FARIA ADVENTURE TOURS or the tour guides is excluded for material damage or damage to persons if caused by myself, except if these damages are covered by the liability insurance prescribed by the regulations. In any case, the scope of the claim is limited at the extent of the insurance cover in the precise case. I accept in any case to not to prosecute RUBEN FARIA ADVENTURE TOURS or the tour guide and staff.

The conclusion of corresponding insurance contracts was suggested to me.

Usage of data: I hereby agreed that RUBEN FARIA ADVENTURE TOURS may use my name, all photos, films and other images for marketing purposes, which RUBEN FARIA ADVENTURES TOURS makes of me during the entire tour or camp.

I can revoke this agreement anytime in writing.
